Dedication: To Jean

"I need thirty copies of this"
"I need twenty copies of that"
"Would you sign me in?"
"Tell me, where can I find a bat?"

"Where can I find ditto paper?"
"Who has the storeroom key?"
"Will you call, for me, this place?"
Oh, a demanding lot are we!

We depend on your good nature,
and always a smile we see--
As you're running off our copies or searching for the storeroom key.

We don't always say our "thank-yous"
For we're preoccupied in thought--
But, Jean, we really do love you,
and appreciate you alot!

We the Reflections staff and students of Costa Christian School are honored to dedicate the 1977 yearbook to you, Mrs. Royal, to commemorate your belief in the high ideals of our school. We appreciate your dedication and loyalty.

We appreciate your constant willingness to do any job regardless of hour, size, or length of time required. We especially thank you for your patience with all our many reasons for being in the office when you needed the space and quietness for your own work.

We appreciate you as one of Costa's founding members.

We sincerely feel that because of your dedication, Costa is a better school.

GEORGE CREWS

I sincerely hope that this school year has been a profitable one for you and that during the forthcoming summer, you will enjoy richer experiences as a result of these new interests acquired during this last school year. It is my sincere wish that you are able to enter the coming school year with a sense of confidence, knowing that you have prepared well to meet the increased responsibilities that will be placed on you.

As you recieve this book, you are nearing completion of another milestone along the educational ladder. In years to come, you will look back at your experiences at Costa with many fond memories.

I hope you appreciate the opportunity you have had of attending a Christian school as much as we have enjoyed having you with us.

ADMINISTRATOR'S MESSAGE

Since I was appointed Admistrator, many things have taken place as a direct result of generous people who have given of their time and means to keep Costa as a strong fort in Christian Education. We pause at times, reluctant to leave memories behind. But to all who have helped Costa, the board of directors, staff, teachers, past, present and graduating seniors and all volunteers must look to the future.

The future is not in the hands of fate, but in God. We must go forth to meet the future not with fear but with courage.

Some say that the future is the past entered through another gate. If so, enter that gate now and together we will begin " The never ending flight of future days".

Sincerely,

Thomas Hardy

Variety Show

Bob Santarini and Nick Smith -
Started the show off with a bang

This year, Costa tried something new. Our seniors, the class of '77, held a variety show. It was held in the multi-purpose building. More then 100 were in attendance.

Many generous people offered their many talents to the show and made it a great success. Only a few are shown here but there were many more.

With ticket and refreshment sales, the Seniors made over $300 which was to be applied to the trip the seniors annually take to Disneyland for Senior Grad Nite.

HOLIDAY DINNER

PRETTY?

Please release me, let me go!.....

Kay & Kompany

I'm a naughty girl!

What can I say, No caption can define this.

I can't believe I drank the whole thing.

Mommy, I'm hungry

Were all in our places with bright shiny faces.

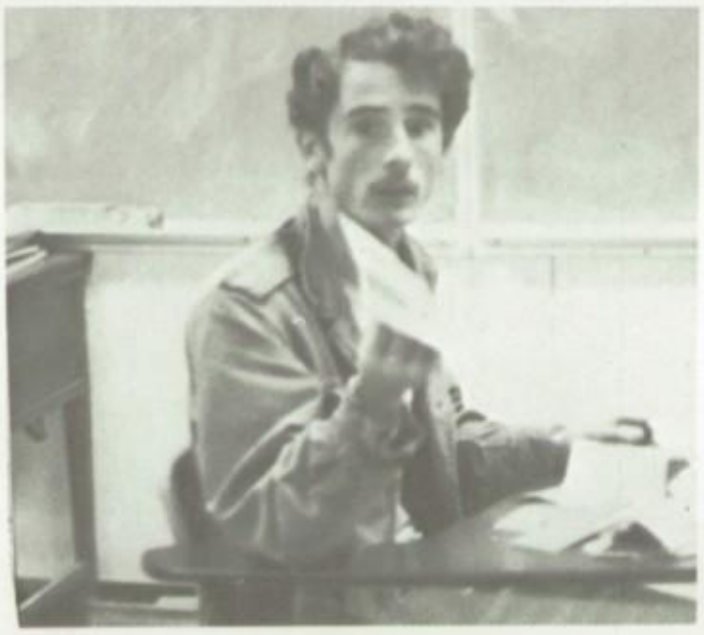
This year C.C.S. students conferred upon two of their number the titles of Mr. C.C.S. and Miss C.C.S. This honor was bestowed upon those high school students who best exemplified in their attitudes and actions the high ideals of Costa Christian School.

Mr. C.C.S.



I consider it a great honor to have been chosen as Mr.C.C.S. and I want to thank those who chose me for making this honor possible. I've really enjoyed going to Costa and I'm glad that I am going to have the privilege of graduating from here.

Ray Lawson

Miss C.C.S.

It's an honor and a privilege to be chosen as Miss C.C.S. I really enjoy going to Costa. My two years at this school have really made me grow with people and I thank you very much.
